

I strongly urge you to reject NAB petition 04-160. It seems to me that part of the greatness of this country is when competing interests slug it out in the marketplace and the consumer chooses the winner. Trying to eliminate competition as NAB petition 04-160 attempts to do is pretty doggone wimpy and disgusting.

John Graybill